FOREWORD

I am a solitary dweller wounded with time, stricken with life. Silence is my garment as I pass knowledge to young minds. Sometimes I enrich and gladden the minds of many. Sometimes I give much that is unused and misused.
Sometimes Knowledge moves with malice through lands, to become the death pangs of men. Still I am a wondrous creation, shaped by man, loved by my lords, fairly adorned

LIFESAVING

Hey, Barry, I think I'm beginning to get tired!

STUDENT COUNCIL

'61-'62: composed of three members from Liberal Arts, two from Business Administration, and one from Electronic Technology.

'62-'63: composed of ten members --- five Seniors, five Freshmen.

A C T I V I T I E S

Our group had 43% fewer cavities.

FROLICS

"The girl that I marry . . ."

Fourscore and seven years ago.

Say, who shut the lights?

But I'm allergic to flowers!

Just pretend they're not there, and sing.

But I don't want to dance!

You're President?

Felicia, please!

I told you the party was next door.

There must be a better way to make a living.

You're right, it's a cavity.

But I am twenty-one!

CHRISTMAS DANCE

Coke! Is that all?

The decorators worked hard.

Did I step on your toe?

But we're not in school now!

Shown are the Freshman Class officers (the dance committee) and their dates.

OPEN HOUSE

First you plug it in . . .

Hello! Hello! Hello!

FACULTY TEA

"Have a drink,
have a drink,
have a drink
on me!"

S P O R T S

I've got it. I've got it.

Don't shove, I'm on your team

No, not hit the ball

BASKETBALL

Gee, that Basket's high!

It's going in!

SWIMMING

Well, who's going in first?

Lifeguard, save me!

Don't forget to watch my time.

Last one to the lockers mops the floor.

S C H O O L L I F E

Look fellas, try to see my point.

LOUNGE

This is no place to cram,
Bob.

Look at that exam schedule!

I'll never live through the year.

What do you mean, we hang around all day?

SNACK SHOP

Did you bake this yourself?

"In the beginning . . ."

That's our flagpole?

Hopscotch! An experiment in child psychology.

Are you sure this is how we become librarians?

I suppose we ought to get some work done.

Must be test time in music.

By Jove, I think I've got it!

What's it suppose to look like, anyway?

Let's see, if we put water up to here . . .

ON CAMPUS

Mr. Dehullu is an inspiring individual who is highly admired by all. To seek after truth conscientiously in every field is his untiring aim.

George is a future high school biology teacher who is planning to transfer to Northeastern University.

At N.E.C.C. he is a Dean's List student and Lay-out Chairman for LUMEN.

A strong sense of responsibility with a willingness to learn, and a desire to succeed characterizes Raymond Abbott. His untiring and unselfish efforts toward the success of our newspaper have made it something of which we may all be justly proud. Ray is a student who will enter the field of journalism.

A Dean's List student, Ray is Editor of N.E.C.C.O. and a member of the Christmas Chorus.

Robert Christy is an independent individual whose ultimate purpose is for the good of the school and of the students. His Student Council leadership and cooperation have merited him much prestige. Bob is a transfer student to the University of New Hampshire, majoring in the sciences and entering the field of naval aviation.

At N.E.C.C., Bob was Vice-President of the Student Council for '61-'62 and is President for '62-'63; he is also a member of the Christmas Chorus.

Rosie

Rosemarie D'Agata is a born manager with an extremely conscientious interest in school activities. She has continually utilized her artistic talent and her willingness to work. She is a behind-the-scenes girl who is not usually in the limelight; but without her school spirit, many accomplishments would not have been possible. Rosie is a student planning to transfer to Massachusetts School of Art and major in fashioning.

At N.E.C.C. she is a member of the LUMEN art staff; the N.E.C.C.O. staff, and the Slope Dopes; she is also cultural director of the Student Council and President of the Paint Jar.

barbie

Barbara Kelly is a person who is very critical in her interest in students and in the school itself. She possesses an unusually warm and outstanding ability to meet people. Efficiency and ambition highlight her character.

Barbie is a Liberal Arts student who is planning to major in economics at Boston University.

At N.E.C.C., Barb is a Dean's List student who is Business Manager of LUMEN, Chairman of the Frolics, President of the Accounting Club, Moderator of the Economics Forum, and member of the Christmas Chorus.

Gaye Maccarone is a student who generates her own personal atmosphere which is infectious. Her leadership and enthusiasm have enabled her to coordinate many activities, both for the newspaper and the yearbook.

Gaye is an English major who is planning to transfer to Salem State.

At N.E.C.C. she is on the Dean's List, Editor of LUMEN, Planning Board of the Frolics, and Secretary of the Soc. Research Group; she is also a member of the Accounting Club, the Christmas Chorus, the Slope Dopes, and N.E.C.C.O.
